Summary

I am pursuing Bachelor's in Computer Applications at Symbiosis International University, Pune. My Bachelor's in Computer Applications has aided me to gain copious technical skills and knowledge in domains including Data Analytics, Machine Learning, Cloud Computing, etc. All the projects and experiences helped me recognize the things that truly interest me and I plan to explore them as career options. Along with gaining rigorous training in Symbiosis, the multiperspective nature of Analytics makes me inquisitive and open to all sorts of discussions. I aspire to be an analytical professional leveraging data to drive business growth.

If you think my skills would be an addition to your team, get in touch with me at- arnavmo@gmail.com

Having said that, I am confident that I can work with utmost diligence, ethics, and with a spirit of teamwork, put my best effort into all the tasks I undertake.
